

Name: _____

Homework

Chunking longer words from Game

Look for base words in each of the compound words. Draw lines between the base words. Cover up the end chunk and read the first chunk of the word. Then just read the end chunk. Put the two chunks together and practice reading the whole word. Answer the questions that follow.

downtown

lineup

Stoneface

layup

ballplayer

Where is downtown for Drew? _____

What is the starting lineup in a basketball game?

Why could someone be called Stoneface?

Why do you think Fletch makes the boys do layups while jumping over a punching bag?

Why is it so important to Drew to be a ballplayer in college?

This page intentionally left blank for printing purposes.