

"How My Life Has Changed"

Hilary North was an office worker for the Aon Company. Aon had their offices on the 103rd floor of the World Trade Center. On September 11, 2001, Hilary was late to work because she stopped to vote. Many of her co-workers were victims of the attacks that morning. It was important for Hilary to remember them all. Here are selected lines from her 35-line poem, "How My Life Has Changed."

| I can no longer eat brownies with Suzanne Y. I can no longer smile at Paul. I can no longer get to know Yolanda. I can no longer laugh with Donna G. I can no longer gossip with Anna. I can no longer compliment Lorenzo. I can no longer hear Herman's voice. I can no longer see the incredible view from the 103rd floor of the South Tower. I can no longer take my life for granted. | I can no longer dance with Mayra. | line 2 |

All of these changes had one single cause: the September 11 attacks. Pick 3 of these effects in Hilary's life. Write a short paragraph about these changes. Each sentence should start with one effect and end with the cause. Use the linking words because, since, or on account of.

| Example: I can no longer dance with Mayra on account of September 11. | |
