

Name: _____

Partner reading

“The All-American Slurp” (pp. 58-61)

Read from “Meg was the first friend...” at the top of page 58 to the break on page 61. Stop at the words “...a normal American family after all.”

Clarify the word “pot-stickers” on p. 60.

Pot-stickers means

Summarize the story of how the narrator got blue jeans, using the 5 Ws.

WHO _____

DID WHAT _____

WHEN _____

WHERE _____

WHY _____

Use the graphic organizer to keep track of what happens with the Lins. Note down important details from pages 58-61. Your details should show how the Lins are getting used to life in America.

For each box in the graphic organizer, write down notes with your partner.

The Lins settle into American life in “The All-American Slurp”
Dinner party at the Gleasons’ pp. 55-57 <ul style="list-style-type: none">- The Lins think the American food is weird- They haven’t seen a buffet dinner before- They feel embarrassed

Partner reading, continued

On the school bus the next day

pp. 57-58

- Meg Gleason says her mother worried there wasn't enough food for the Lins at dinner

The Lins try to learn more about Americans

pp. 58-60

Things get easier for the Lins

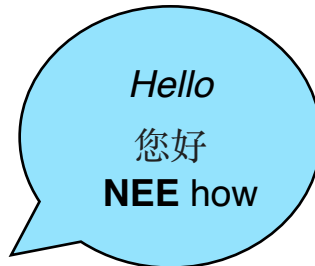

pp. 60-61

Partner reading, continued

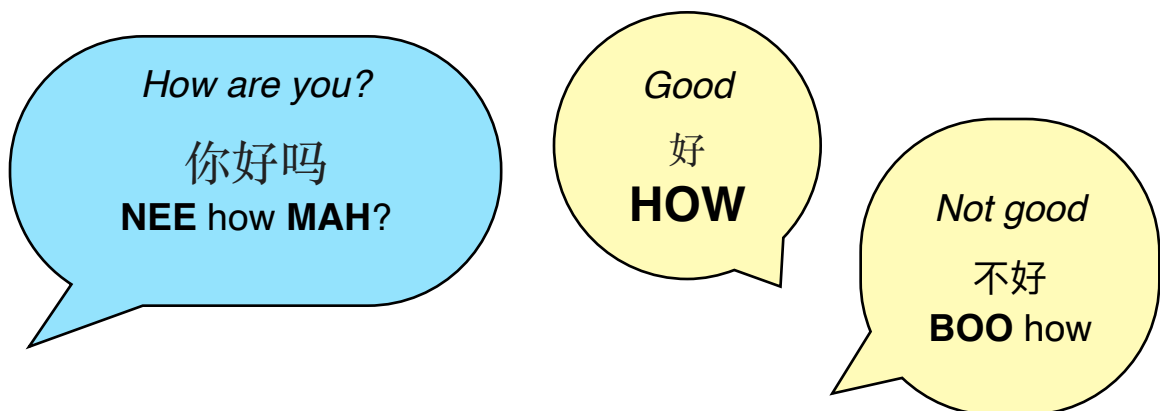

Say it in Chinese!

 With a partner, practice saying the Chinese words below.

1. Greet each other.

2. Ask and answer the question “How are you?”

3. Say good-bye.

Check the box when you finish.

We did this!

This page intentionally left blank for printing purposes.