

Name: _____

Partner reading

“The All-American Slurp” (pp. 64-67)

 Read the paragraph in the middle of page 64, starting with “But by the time...”

 With your partner, fill in the first box of the graphic organizer below.

The Lin parents come to a parent-teacher meeting p. 64
The Lins have the Gleasons over for dinner pp. 64-66
The narrator and Meg Gleason go out to Dairy Queen pp. 66-67

 Read from the bottom of page 64 to the top of page 65. Stop at “gizzards stewed in soy sauce.”

Make a prediction

 What do you think will happen when the Gleasons come to dinner at the Lins’?

Look back at the story for facts.

What facts can you find that back up your prediction?

-  1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Partner reading, continued

 Read from the words “Mother decided not to...” at the top of page 65 to the end of the story.

 With your partner, fill in the rest of the graphic organizer on the previous page.

Was your prediction right?

I was right

I was almost right

I was way off

 Talk to your partner.

 Look at your notes for The Lins have the Gleasons over for dinner (pp. 64-66) on the previous page. Compare them to Dinner party at the Gleasons’ (pp. 55-57), which you read in the last lesson.

Dinner party at the Gleasons’ pp. 55-57

- The Lins think the American food is weird
- They haven't seen a buffet dinner before
- They feel embarrassed

What do you see that's almost the same about the two dinners?

During dinner at the Gleasons' house, the Lins

During dinner at the Lins' house, the Gleasons

What could be the author's message to us?