

Name:

Bearing witness

To “bear witness” means to show that something exists or is true. Often, bearing witness means telling someone’s story in order to show that some type of injustice, inequity, or suffering exists. There are many ways to “bear witness.”

You will get an image from your teacher. An image is a photo or picture. Take a moment to look at it. Think about these questions and write your answers.

What’s going on in the image? What do you see?

---

---

---

---

How might this image be an example of “bearing witness”?

---

---

---

---