Game by Walter Dean Myers

Using the cover of Game, try making some predictions about the characters, setting, problem, solution, and main events of the novel.

Talk to your partner. Think about other books, movies, and TV. This can help your predictions!

- Who could be the main characters in the novel?

- Who else might be a character in this novel?

- Where could the novel take place (the setting)?

- When could the novel take place?

- This could be a novel that begins with a problem. What could the problem be in this novel?

- How might the characters solve this problem? How might it end up? What could be the resolution?

- What do you predict could be some main events or happenings in this novel?
