

Exit Ticket #11

Name: _____

Date: _____

In 2018, a 14-year-old girl in Minnesota used Snapchat to send a revealing picture of herself to a boy she liked. He made copies of the picture without her permission. Then he shared the photo with other students. Now, the girl is being charged with child pornography. This is a felony, which means a very serious crime. If she is found guilty, she could spend 10 years on a sex offender registry.
