

Exit Ticket #30

Name: _____

Date: _____

As we get close to the end of the book, we should think about what lessons we learn as readers. Jot down what you think Jacqueline Woodson was trying to teach us about life in the book Locomotion.

What do you think the book teaches us about family?

---

About grief/dealing with loss?

---

About writing?

---

Anything else?