Re-read the passage below about Jennifer Lawrence. Then, jot down what you think the underlined word means below.

At age 14, Jennifer begged her parents to let her become a real actor. They said no. She had to finish school. Not a problem! Jennifer quickly got her GED. She began to get work on TV shows. She knew this was right for her. In 2009, she spoke to the Louisville Courier-Journal about her budding career. She said, “Once I got the tiniest taste for this, I could never look back.”

Budding probably means: _____
