#BlackLivesMatter

On July 13, 2013, Patrisse Cullors started the Black Lives Matter movement – with a hashtag. A jury had just found the shooter not guilty of murdering Black teen Trayvon Martin. Patrisse was upset. She went on social media to speak out against the verdict. She posted a comment with the hashtag:

#blacklivesmatter. This was the start of a movement. Black Lives Matter has protested police violence. They help people register to vote. They fight for undocumented immigrants. By 2016, #blacklivesmatter had been tweeted over 30 million times.
