

Name:

Homework

What do you remember?

Almost everyone who was at least 10 years old at the time (born in 1991 or before) remembers September 11, 2001. Many people remember where they were when they got news of the attacks. Many people worried about family or friends in New York or Washington. Many people felt the world changed on September 11.

→ Your assignment is to interview an adult about September 11, 2001. Ask the questions below and take notes on answers you get. We will use these notes to better understand this important event.

Where were you when you heard about the September 11, 2001 attacks?

What were you doing when you first heard the news?

What do you remember seeing on TV or the internet that day?

Some people say that everything changed on September 11, 2001. Do you agree or disagree?

What do you think about the events now?

This page intentionally left blank for printing purposes.