

Name:

Legal and illegal immigration

Hot Topics: Immigration (p. 17)

A note about terminology

Today, you'll see the term "illegal immigrants." Later on in the unit, you'll see another term: "undocumented immigrants." Both terms refer to the same group of people—immigrants living in a new land without the government's permission, and without the documents that show permission.

 Read the information in the box on page 17.

 Work with your partner to answer the following questions.

According to the book, what do legal immigrants need?

 What's a visa? Find the definition in the glossary and write it here:

There are two different ways for someone to be in a country illegally (not legally). What are they?

1.

2.

According to the book, how many people are in the U.S. illegally?
