

Name: _____

Real Kids, Real Stories, Real Change

“Top of the World” (pp. 34–36)

Listen while your teacher reads pages 34–36. This is the true story of a teenage girl from India. She became the youngest woman to climb Mount Everest.

Mark the word “towering” on page 35.

→ What does “towering” describe in this sentence?

→ What base word do you see inside “towering”? _____

→ What could “towering” mean? _____

Mark the word “Himalayas” on page 35.

→ What context clue do you see for this?

Mark the word “spouted” on page 36.

→ In this article, what got spouted? _____

→ Who spouted? _____

→ What could “spouted” mean? _____

Santosh tells her family she would like to climb Everest one day. Her father says that girls can never do this.

If you were Santosh, what could you say back to your father? Use facts from the readings for today.

This page intentionally left blank for printing purposes.