"Little brother," he called me

In "Roof Poem II," Lonnie wrote about wanting to have a place he can call "home" (page 25).

In the poems "Rodney" (pages 82-83) and "Almost Summer Sky" (pages 87-89), Lonnie wrote about spending time with Miss Edna's son, who calls him "little brother."

- > Do you think that Lonnie is starting to feel like Miss Edna's apartment is his home?
- Is Lonnie starting to feel that Miss Edna and Rodney are his family? Pretend you are Lonnie, and that you are writing an entry in your diary. Write about what happened with Miss Edna and Rodney. Be sure to say what Lonnie is feeling now.
