

Name:

Day Two

Where Are You From?

Part 1: Tricky phrases and words

→ Read these phrases and words out loud to your partner.

- Although he was born in Brazil
- his dad cooks American-style hot dogs
- is where Kara grew up
- That's a DC kind of thing to say
- I must be from here already

- San Francisco            SAN FRAN | sis | koh
- Brazilian                    bruh | ZIL | ee | un
- favorite                    FAY | ver | et
- California                 kal | ih | FOR | nyuh
- Massachusetts            mass | uh | CHOO | sets
- Areceli                     air | uh | SELL | ee

Decoding practice:

Circle the base words in the longer words below. Remember, a base word shows the core meaning of a longer word. The base word includes no word endings or prefixes. The first one has been done for you.

Brazilian

American

usually

Japanese

totally

Day Two

// one minute

Where Are You From?

Part 2: Last read

WPM _____

Victor has lived in San Francisco since he was five years old. He is a big Giants fan. He loves Brazilian soccer, too. Although he was born in Brazil, his favorite place is Baker Beach. On Victor’s birthday, his dad cooks American-style hot dogs and serves them with Brazilian rice. Sometimes people ask Victor where he is from. He always says, “I’m from California. This is my home.”

47
61
69

Dallas, Texas, is where Kara grew up. She is 13 and has lived in Dallas her whole life. “When people hear me talk, they usually ask where I am from.” Kara explains, “My mom is from New York, and I talk just like her. People don’t really think I’m from here.”

87
102
119
120

Hana lives in Washington, DC. Her family’s home is on Massachusetts Avenue. “But we call it Mass Ave,” Hana says. “That’s a DC kind of thing to say.” When Hana meets new people, they often ask where she is from. “My dad is from Japan,” she says. “I look Japanese, I guess. But I am totally from here.”

133
151
169
178

Where are you from? Are there things you say that people in other places don’t get? Do you have sports teams that everyone gets excited about?

194
204

“I just moved to Boston,” says Areceli. “But I know this is my home.” She laughs. “I love Boston sports teams even when they lose. I must be from here already.”

221
235

Part 3: Comprehension and discussion

Where would you say you are from?

_____

Check with your partner.

Where does your partner say he/she is from? _____

Check the answer that fits:

- We both say we are from the same place
- We say we are from different places