Name:

G0	Read the	poem	silently	to yourself.
----	----------	------	----------	--------------

950	When you are both ready, read the stanza together that starts, "There's roast beef and ribs." Summarize what happened.
	WHO DID WHAT WHERE WHY
	Read out loud the words in the first stanza that are in italics (Look at Little Brother).
ASD	Talk to your partner.
	→ Who says these words?
	Find all the places in the poem where these words are repeated. Mark these with post-its.
	→ Why do you think Lonnie keeps repeating these words?

Lesson 29 p. 143

Partner reading, continued

Miss Edna's son Rodney is more important for the story now. Re-read pages 82-83 of Locomotion. Find quotes from this poem that describe Rodney. Use quotation marks for your quotes, like "straight teeth." How Rodney looks Quotes from the poem How Rodney treats Lonnie Quotes from the poem

Lesson 29 p. 144

"Epitaph Poem" - Locomotion (p. 84)

- Read the poem silently to yourself.
- When both you and your partner are ready, read the poem out loud together. Talk it over before you read. What mood or feeling do you want to show in your reading?

One partner will read a line.

The other partner will read the next line.

Keep trading off lines until the end of the poem.

Talk to your partner	r.
----------------------	----

Epitaphs are one way we remember people who have died.

	else can ideas.	Lonnie	do to 1	keep ren	nembering	, his mo	ther? N	rite do	nwn

anouncement of the second			THE PERSON NAMED OF THE PE				CONTROL OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE	POSTPOSTPOSTPOSTPOS

Lesson 29 p. 145

