Decoding practice:

We break words into syllables where we see two consonants in the middle of words.

- Underline the middle two consonants.
- Draw a line between the two consonants.
- Put a short vowel sign over the first vowel.
- Say the word with your partner.

The first one is done for you.

Day Two Immigration Scams

Part 2: Last read

WPM _____

Back in 2014, President Obama made changes in immigration rules. He challenged immigrants to "come out of the shadows and get right with the law." For some immigrants, however, this is when problems really began.

The waiting time for a green card can stretch into years. People without green cards50often face deportation. Some crooked lawyers take advantage of families who are62trying to get legal status. Families pay thousands and get nothing in exchange.75Razeen Zaman's family came to New York City from Bangladesh. Razeen told her88 story in an interview for "Raise Our Story." Her father faced death in Bangladesh102because of his political stands. The family tried to apply for refugee status in the U.S.118A dishonest lawyer took their case. The Zamans learned he did not file the right papers.134Then he threatened to turn them in if they did not pay.146

When people are desperate, scams are common. Sometimes criminals get the phone158numbers of undocumented immigrants. They send phony text messages. "You have169won the immigration lottery." They follow up with demands for money.180

There is a real immigration lottery. People from certain countries can apply. Exactly19350,000 people are picked to win a green card. But paying fees to a shady business is210no help. Either your name gets picked, or you are out of luck. But many immigrants226pay for lottery help that makes no difference in the outcome.237

Where can immigrants go for real help? Church and community groups can refer250them to honest lawyers. The government can crack down on crooked immigration262businesses.263

Part 3: Comprehension and discussion

About 10 million people are living in the U.S. without green cards. Is it fair to have a lottery every year and give green cards to 50,000 of these people?

| I think this is fair. | I think this is not fair. | 🛛 I'm not sure. |
