

Name:

Homework

Making connections

Today, in Ghost Boys, we learned that a 12-year-old boy named Jerome was shot and killed by a White police officer because he had a gun.

In this unit, we have read about several real-life Black males who have been killed by White men. Does Jerome's story remind you of any of those? Pick one to write about:

- Tamir Rice
- Emmett Till
- Trayvon Martin

Some things that are the same about Jerome and the person I chose are:

Some things that are different about Jerome and the person I chose are:

This page intentionally left blank for printing purposes.