Writing

Follow the instructions given in class for choosing two interesting memories. Write down details for each memory below.

Memory 1

Memory 2

Writing a memory poem

Choose one of your memories and write a short poem about it.

Try to include:

- Sensory description—sight, sound, smell, touch, or taste
- Dialogue—what people said
- Exaggeration
- Repetition of words or phrases
- Repeated sounds (alliteration)

Remember, if you have forgotten some details or don't want to share some parts of your memory, that's okay. You can make up, change, or leave out anything you want. If you're stuck, try starting your poem with "I remember."
