Read the advice Duane gives Justin about girls.

“Tip number one, don’t act like you want it.”

“Tip number two...ask her questions. Girls like to hear themselves talk.”

“Tip number three, never spill your guts.”

“This is a very big tip: Do not—I repeat—do not let a girl know she is giving you a breathing problem—tell her you have asthma.”

“A related tip: Do not sweat, stutter, or change color in front of a girl. And never ever tell a girl you like her. Let her say it first.”

Do you agree or disagree with Duane’s advice? Why?
